In an executive session which did not adjourn until 3 o'clock this morning, the delegates to the state convention of the Nonpartisan league called as the first step in the reorganization plan selected the ten men who are to go before the membership in a referendum to select the state executive committee.

None of the executive officials of the league were present at the meeting except Mr. Ferhst, a member of the temporary executive committee, who was a delegate from Ward.

R. H. Walker, league candidate for state treasurer at the June primary, was elected chairman of the afternoon session. After the appointment of several committees, the meeting then adjourned to convene again at 8 p. m. The meetings were held at Patterson hall up to the time of a dance when an adjournment was taken to Mr. Lemke's room in the McManis hotel.

Four of the ten men chosen are now members of the temporary committee. They are: Senator Church of Benson, Senator Evans of Walsh and Senator Liederbach of Dunn, and Mr. Ferhst.

The other six men are: Representative Johnson of Steele, Representative Madcock of Mountrail, Ole Kalder of Traill, Thomas E. Benday of Sully, E. H. Walker of Oliver and Walter Welford, former senator from Pembina.

State Control
The entire ten men are representative of the faction now in control of league affairs and their selection, considered by leaguers and others to be an expression of approval of the policies of William Lemke, attorney general and member of the national executive committee of the league.

It is looked upon also as an affirmation of the decision recently announced by North Dakota league leaders, of divorce from the national organization as far as state affairs are concerned.

Leaguers in hotel corridors emphasize that the delegates themselves without any outsiders whatsoever present, organized themselves, conducted their own deliberations and picked out the ten nominees.

To Refer Names
These ten men will now go before the membership and the five highest will constitute the committee, which will organize itself with a chairman and a secretary and will establish headquarters at Fargo.

Senator Church declared today that this committee will have complete charge of all league affairs in the state, but will co-operate with the national body in national policies.

"We are going to have complete state autonomy," he said. "The meeting was very harmonious and the league in splendid shape. Its finances are excellent and the business affairs of the Publishers National Service bureau are under control."

On the final passage of the Baker "steering committee" resolution carried by a vote of 25 to 24, Senator Bond declared:

"I believe this resolution was introduced with the best of intentions but nevertheless it will develop into a steering committee. In the ten years I have been in the legislature I have always fought such a system and always shall vote against such a bill."

Senator Stevens in explanation of his vote against the measure said:

"I am opposed to any resolution which contains the name of the Nonpartisan league, the Independent Voters association, the Democratic or Republican party or any other specific term. We are here to legislate for all of the people regardless of their political affiliation."

Senator Baird said: "The bill as drawn is in the nature of a steering committee. I object to the language which is a direct insinuation against the intention of the majority members of this body."

Senator Wenstrum, leaguer, made the clincher motion which precludes the possibility of the resolution being brought up for reconsideration.

IT'S ALL THE WAY YOU VIEW IT.

THIS MAKE YOU MAD?—This will either make you mad or glad—it all depends. Prohibition agents accumulated 130,000 quarts of honest-to-goodness hard liquor in several months' raids in Waukegan, Ill. And here they are pouring it all down the sewer.

THE COUNTY SALARY BILL

The senate on Friday passed a resolution introduced by Fred Mees of Morton county, independent, urging congress to pass laws which would extend the time for payment of entry fees and land fees by settlers on the Standing Rock reservation who have been hard hit financially, because of losses sustained in livestock and three years of poor crops.

The resolution was introduced by James E. Campbell, Mardian, receiver of the United States land office at Bismarck, who called attention to the condition of the settlers who owe approximately $25,000. These homesteaders have no funds with which to meet the government payments, and are helpless as a result of rulings of the U. S. Department of the Interior.

Senator Mees urged that the rules be suspended and that the joint resolution be placed on final passage due to the fact that thirty days only remain until the time when the government will cancel contracts. Senators Bowman, Liederbach and Ingerson insisted that the measure go to the federal relations committee, and prevailed. The committee met during a recess of the senate and later passed the resolution.

The resolution adopted Thursday by the house, introduced in that body by Representative Watt of Cass county, was received by the senate, and upon motion by Senator Bowman was referred to the committee on agriculture.

Wants Salary Schedule.
A communication to Senator Gardner from the county officials of Nelson county urged that the legislature take action to provide a new schedule on which to base county officers' salaries. The communication cited that while prices have dropped 85 per cent, they are still 55 per cent higher on clothing and foodstuffs, and that commodities than before, the wages of labor have been greatly increased. The county officials are drawing the same pay they did nine years ago.

The communication further cited that the commissioners of Nelson county some time ago raised the wages of deputy officials from $80 to $110 a month, that the county officials themselves are in great need of an increase, and that to make suitable increases in the case of Nelson county probably would amount to $125 additional tax on each quarter section.

FIRES AT WIFE
12 TIMES, SHE
MAY RECOVER

Muskegon, Mich., Jan. 14.—After several practice shots at the family cat, Irving Morton early today fired his wife to become his target and spent 30 minutes in firing twelve shots into her body. Then he turned the rifle on himself and fired once, dying instantly. Despite the 12 bullet wounds, Mrs. Morton has a chance for recovery, physicians said.

According to statements made to the police by the wounded woman Morton was intoxicated.

CREAMERY AT WERNER HAS
QUIT OPERATIONDairy Commissioner Says Experiment at Plant Proved Valuable

LOCAL CREAMERIES FAIL

The state creamery at Werner has suspended operations. The suspension was occasioned by the completion of the period of experimental operation undertaken by the state department of agriculture, according to O. E. Osterhus, state dairy commissioner, who denied that it could be called a "state-owned industry" in the sense that other industries stated by the state are referred to. The state's contract concludes in June.

The object of the state's experiment with the creamery was to find out why so many local creameries have suspended operations. Mr. Osterhus said, "The Werner plant was operated by the state under a lease for several months."

"One purpose was to find out why local creameries fail," said Mr. Osterhus. "About 250 have been started in the state and about 25 now are in operation. We operated the plant long enough to become thoroughly convinced that under average conditions the local creamery is not the type of institution that farmers may look to as the solution of the manufacturing end of the dairy industry. The volume of business distributed throughout the year is not sufficiently large in one community to make successful operation possible. We found, however, that more than 50 per cent of the total year's production is available during three months and that these three months normally are in the season when the quality and the prices are low."

"Many communities become ambitious and believe they would be best served by the operation of a local creamery, and it is difficult to convince the people of such a community that it is advisable for them to proceed with caution in the matter of providing their own local manufacturing plant. We now have specific data we can give them to consider before taking a step which more than likely will result in failure and have a retarding rather than a beneficial effect in the community."

Mr. Osterhus says that more than 95 per cent of the cream is marketed through centralizer stations, and he feels this is an unhealthy condition leading to monopolistic control. Pointing to the success of the co-operative creamery of Aberdeen, S. D., of which many North Dakotans are stockholders, he urges co-operation to handle business through centralizer stations on a large scale.

Mr. Osterhus believes that there should be such a creamery at Bismarck and is planning a series of meetings urging farmers in this section to join in such a manufacturing plan. He does not recommend state-owned creameries.

A financial statement of the operations of the creamery has not been completed. The commissioner believes that the books will about balance, and says that the station paid higher rates for cream than most stations. It was operated during the most favorable months, he said, and if it were continued until next June, during unfavorable months, it doubtless would show a loss, he said. Salaries paid one or two employees, who were competent to conduct the experiment, were above the average, he said.

PRESIDENT WILSON ADOPTS 20 STARVING CHILDREN

President Wilson, in appealing to the country to contribute to the support of the 3,500,000 starving children in Eastern and Central Europe, whom the European Relief Council is undertaking to save, announced that he had adopted twenty waifs as his temporary wards through his gift of $200. The president's statement said: "Three and a half million children are facing starvation in Central Europe. It is estimated that they can be tided over until the next harvest by money and service equivalent to $30 per child. The countries involved can furnish two-thirds of this cost in the personnel and machinery for distribution, but for the other one-third they must look abroad, and they are looking to us."

Ten Dollars Contributed Through the European Relief Council Will Save The Life of One Child

"We should think of this sad European problem in terms of children rather than money. Ten dollars will represent a child's life in Central Europe. I shall adopt twenty of these children as my own temporary wards and I can think of no better use to which I could put $200."

ASK RAIL MEN BE PLACED IN COMPENSATION

Other Measures Include Armistice Day as Holiday and Bonus to Boost

Bills to include railroad men employed in intrastate service in the benefits of the workmen's compensation law and increasing the expenses to be allowed to the workmen's compensation bureau from $50,000 to $75,000 and increasing the salaries of the commissioners from $2,500 a year to $3,500 have been introduced in the house by Representative Frank A. Vogel of Coleharbor and are now in the hands of the house insurance committee.

The North Dakota Engineers' association and educational and study clubs in all parts of the state have asked the Legislature to pass the one mill tax for the university and educational institutions, as recommended by President Thomas Kane of the University of North Dakota and which plan is supported by many independent.

A House bill introduced by Semling of Bismarck and other American Legion members of the House proposes that November 11, Armistice day, be added to the list of legal holidays in the state.

Heaton's Bill
Representative L. A. Heaton of Burleigh county introduced a bill yesterday increasing the levy for the soldier bonus from three-fourths to one mill, and doing away with all restrictions upon the use of the money by the soldier entitled to it.

Mr. Heaton, an independent, takes the position that the issue is of greatest importance so far as the soldier is concerned is the provision of the pension law that restricts the use to which the bonus may be applied. He would do away with all restrictions. This bill, if passed, would materially increase the number of soldiers entitled to the state bonus, according to the sponsor.

Another bill of interest to the service men is that sponsored jointly by Representatives Semling, Bjorgo, Boyd, Kitchen, Carlson, Piewzler, Stark and Olson of Billings, all American Legion men. It would add Armistice day, Nov. 11, to the list of legal holidays.

School Petition
The Cass county delegation filed with the house a communication from Ed Kingle of Buffalo, and 65 others, asking that a bill be passed more evenly distributing the burden of taxation for high school purposes. The petition recites that in one district where there is a high school there is a tax of $1 an acre while in the adjoining district where there is not a high school the tax is 40 cents an acre although the high school serves for both districts.

The petitioners ask there be either a state levy for high schools or special fund for their maintenance, or that the state be redistributed so as to provide more equable distribution of the burden.

H. R. Henke of Hannover, and others have addressed a petition to Whitmer of Oliver, a communication asking for proper compensation to election officials. The resolution was read and filed.

His Wife---And The Other Woman

The things that meant everything to Clayton Spencer, meant nothing to his wife. She sneered at his ideals, made light of his work, mocked his quiet simplicity and raked his sensitive soul with her cheap escapades. Was he wrong in turning to the woman who really loved him with her whole heart? Was he to be blamed for seeking the sympathy his wife denied him? Every man and every woman will want to see this great picture.

FIND A 'JOKER' IN RISK BILL IN THE HOUSE

Friends of L. J. Wehe Say It Is Effort to Override the Courts

The first "joker" in a legislative bill was reported today by friends of L. J. Wehe, who is contesting for his seat as a commissioner of the Workmen's Compensation bureau in the courts.

House bill No. 19 provides for the organization of the Workmen's Compensation commission, and provides: "and it is provided that the present commissioners, acting by appointment as commissioners of the Workmen's Compensation bureau as now constituted, shall hold office until the commissioners provided for under this act are appointed and qualified."

This, Mr. Wehe's friends say, is the joker intended to prevent his obtaining redress from the courts.

There are now three commissioners. C. M. Spencer was named as Wehe's successor when Judge Nuesle of the district court, held Wehe had not been properly removed and was entitled to the office. The case now is in the supreme court.

BRITISH SLUMP SENDS WHEAT TO NEW LEVEL

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Reduction in British wheat prices and lack of support other than bids caused wheat to tumble today.

After breaking one-half to two cents at the start the market gathered additional weakness and carried prices downward.

W. L. RICHARDS RETIRES FROM STATE BANK

Dickinson, Jan. 15.—W. L. Richards, for the past ten years president of the Merchants National Bank and one of the best known ranchers and stockmen in the state, has disposed of his holdings to his associates and severed his connection with the institution in order that he may devote his entire time to his ranching interests.

Mr. Richards retired from the bank and made his transfer of stock at the annual stockholders' meeting Tuesday.

He is succeeded to the presidency by J. P. Davis, who was the first president of the institution after its organization in 1906. Other officers and directors who were elected at the meeting were: M. L. Ayers, first vice-president; George A. Senglar, second vice-president; Wilson Eyer, cashier; Andrew Erdahl and Elliot Freeman, assistant cashiers, and J. P. Davis, M. L. Ayers, George A. Senglar, Wilson Eyer, and Elliot Freeman, directors.

The committee rejected 9 to 2 an amendment by Representative Mason of Illinois, that invitation to participate in the conference be extended to Ireland and the Philippines.

FIRST TOUR TO THE FAR WEST

Then, Karlo, the American tenor who comes to Bismarck, Jan. 18, enjoys a large following in the eastern states. This is his first visit to the west and one of his few continental concert tours. It is really his introduction to the music lovers of this section.

Response to this attraction has been very encouraging. It is hoped by those under whose auspices Mr. Karlo is coming to Bismarck that he will be greeted by a crowded house.

The seat sale is now on at Harris & Co.

Killer of First Fly In 1921 Rewarded

New York, Jan. 14.—Four sang and soter men celebrated their first hour of 1921 by visiting New York's gay cafes and hotels to see if they could find one winter housefly. Unsuccessful along the Gay White Way they went lower on Manhattan Island where the less luxurious restaurants held their sleepless celebrants.

And in one of them they found a rosy specimen with a lean and hump.

I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and almost a box of Cuticura Ointment for three weeks I was completely healed." Sends regrets.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Satisfactory assurance by the Japanese government that its regret over the killing of Lieut. W. H. Langdon, of the cruiser Albany, by a Japanese sentry at Vladivostok, would be supplemented by convincing proof of its intention to make similar incidents improbable were awaited today by the state department.

Confident that the Japanese government would make "adequate reparation" for the killing of Lieut. Langdon was expressed by the department in a note dispatched last night to the Tokyo foreign office. In view of the official expressions of regret and with the promptness with which the Japanese authorities acted government officials were inclined to regard the end of the incident in sight.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 15.—After being struck on the head with a piece of lead pipe Miss Harriet Kavanaugh, Buffalo, N. Y., a nurse at the naval academy hospital, died today. Police are looking for the motive for the crime. The girl was found unconscious on a road last night.

GRAIN MEN FIGHT LAW ON HEDGING

President of Kansas City Board of Trade Says It Would Unset Markets

Washington, Jan. 15.—Legislation restricting speculative transactions and "hedging" in the grain trade would upset the whole machinery of grain distribution and open the way to domination by a few powerful interests, R. L. Hargis, president of the Kansas City Board of Trade, today told the house agricultural committee considering legislation to regulate grain exchanges.

Recent fluctuation in the grain market frequently attributed to speculation, he declared, were primarily due to a dislocated transportation system. Other causes of depression in the market, he said, were the heavy imports of Canadian wheat; abnormal high profits taken by grain exporters because of the supposed risk involved in European sales at this time; restriction of credit by the banks and successive increases in the government crop forecast.

SUSPECT FARMER DIED OF RAT POISON

Chicago, Jan. 15.—A package of rat poison, which was found by Sheriff Len D. Spaulding of Bureau county, is being sent to Chicago and will be analyzed when it arrives today to determine whether it contains poison similar to that found last December in the viscera of Harry W. Pierson, a prosperous farmer, of Princeton, Bureau county.

Pierson died of convulsions last October 21. The farmer's wife, Mrs. Holma Pierson, mother of two children, and Arthur Shipp, a returned soldier, formerly employed on the Pierson farm, have been indicted by the Bureau county grand jury on charges of murder in connection with Pierson's death.

Mrs. Pierson is said to have confessed intimacy with Shipp. From last September 28 and for sometime after Pierson's death, Shipp said, Mrs. Pierson had carried on a correspondence, using the hen-house, as the postoffice.

INVESTIGATION HALTS.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The scientific arising from the fatal shooting by a Japanese sentry of Lieut. W. H. Langdon at Vladivostok was stopped today to remain in status quo until reports of the finding of an American naval court in Vladivostok to the Bureau county grand jury on charges of murder in connection with Pierson's death.

for budget-making, put in house-wifely terms because women are said to do 90 per cent of the buying; to an advance estimate of necessary expenditures—food, shelter, clothing, health, fun, gifts, etc.—and give out the bill or check, like the dentist's bill or wedding gift, or unexpected entertainment; then add a 10 per cent extra for "extras."

Putting the above in plain English, the items which should be taken account of in a family or individual budget are: Shelter (rent, mortgage interest, property taxes, insurance); running expenses (fuel, light, repairs, furnishings, etc.); food; clothing; gifts; savings (including life insurance, investments, payables on home); health (doctors' bills, dentists' bills, needed recreation); amusement, education, recreation, and vacation; desired at the moment, then putting what is left (which is usually nothing) in the savings bank.

In 1920, budgets are still the style because it has gradually been realized that this method of regulating expenditures is as essential to the smooth-running of personal or family lives as to the management of a business. Budgeting is merely expert accountancy applied to the home. To be sure there are still thousands of individuals and families who prefer the hit-or-miss method of spending, paying back bills with a sudden thrill of virtue, paying whatever is most needed and desired at the moment, then putting what is left (which is usually nothing) in the savings bank.

The number of indifferent spenders is getting smaller every year, though, due to war-time experience and the wise apostles of thrift who have put budget-making across as a business-like habit.

Here's the most approved recipe expenses (fuel, light, repairs, furnishings, etc.); food; clothing; gifts; savings (including life insurance, investments, payables on home); health (doctors' bills, dentists' bills, needed recreation); amusement, education, recreation, and vacation; desired at the moment, then putting what is left (which is usually nothing) in the savings bank.

General standards for saving have been suggested by various advisors. Here are two from the Savings Division of the U. S. Treasury Department—for an average family of five members.

(a) For an income less than $2,000

Savings, one-tenth, or $10 in each $100 (less in smaller incomes and to do 90 per cent of the buying; to an advance estimate of necessary expenditures—food, shelter, clothing, health, fun, gifts, etc.—and give out the bill or check, like the dentist's bill or wedding gift, or unexpected entertainment; then add a 10 per cent extra for "extras."

(b) When the income is $2,000 or more, each $100 spent may divide somewhat as follows: Savings, about one-seventh, or $15 in each $100; rent, one-seventh, or $15 in each $100; food, two-sevenths, or about $30 in each $100; clothing, one-sixth, or $16; housekeeping expenses, one-tenth, or $10; personal expenses, one-tenth, or $10; savings, one-tenth, or $10 in each $100.

1920 WEATHER ABOVE NORMAL REVIEW SHOWS

Climatological Summary Gives Some Interesting Facts

The weather during 1920 was two degrees above normal in mean temperature, the report of D. W. Roberts, weather observer, shows. In his climatological summary for the year 1920 Mr. Roberts says:

"The mean temperature for Bismarck for the year 1920 was 42.0 degrees, or 2.0 degrees above the normal. The highest annual mean temperature ever recorded at Bismarck was 45.1 degrees in 1878; the lowest was 35.5 degrees in 1875. The highest temperature recorded at Bismarck in 1920 was 102 degrees on the 22nd day of July. The highest temperature ever recorded at Bismarck was 107 degrees on the 18th day of July in 1910. The lowest temperature recorded at Bismarck in 1920 was 32 degrees on the 21st day of January. The lowest temperature ever recorded at Bismarck was 45 degrees on the 13th day of January, 1916.

The annual precipitation for Bismarck for the year 1920 was 11.15 inches. The greatest annual precipitation ever recorded at Bismarck was 30.32 inches in 1876; the least one was 11.03 inches in 1889. The average annual precipitation for Bismarck is 17.64 inches. It will thus be seen that with but one exception (1889) the past year was the driest of record.

There were 71 days with 0.01 inch or more of precipitation. There were 132 clear days, 118 partly cloudy days and 51.8 cloudy days. The prevailing direction of the wind for the year was from the northwest, being north-west during each month of the year with the exception of May, when it was east, and in August when it was southeast. The last killing frost for the year in spring occurred on April 27th; the first in fall occurred on September 30th.

Canadian Laws Won't Cause Drouth Here Says Watkins

North Dakota will not suffer a drouth due to the laws passed by the Canadian parliament, which according to F. L. Watkins, really contain a joker that lets Saskatchewan from which province the whiskey-runners secure most of their supplies out of the pale of enforcement. The joker prohibits liquor from importation into any province of Canada for local consumption but does not prohibit shipment to border line points for exportation.

As a result, says the chief of the enforcement league, whiskey running will be on the increase next summer. This he uses as the major argument in a statement issued today in support of various measures which the Enforcement League has sponsored in the present session of the legislature.

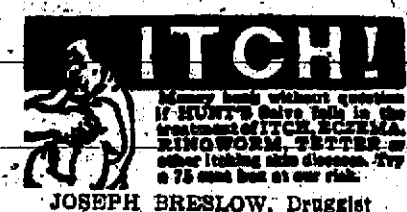

"New Canadian laws soon to be in effect will not stop whiskey running," said Mr. Watkins. "I have a copy of the Canadian law and it is carefully and artfully drawn so as not to interfere with exporting liquor and importing and storing for exportation. Illegal whiskey running will be worse next spring and summer than it was last year, unless the legislature provides ample means to cope with it."

"Manitoba has to some extent prevented the establishment of a distillery while Saskatchewan has allowed such to be established all along the North Dakota border and has given a monopoly of the sales for permitted purposes to a Montreal liquor firm who are the greatest purveyors of liquors to 'blind-piggers'."

"I have taken this matter up with Secretary Ben H. Spence of Toronto of the Dominion alliance," said Mr. Watkins. "and he says: 'There are vast stores of liquor in Canada and I am afraid that in some way whiskey running along the border is not likely to be effectively dealt with from this side for some time.'"

SOUTH DAKOTA SLICES BUDGET

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 15.—Presentation to the South Dakota legislature of the state budget for the biennium ending July 1, 1922, disclosed that the state budget board had trimmed by nearly 40 per cent the requests of the various state institutions and departments.

From the total requests of $13,134,457.89, the budget board chopped off a total of $5,582,229.38, making the total allowed by the board $7,552,228.51.

This total allowance is $747,297.02 under the total appropriated by the regular and special sessions of the last legislature when $7,555,525.72 and $763,988.83 respectively was allowed for a total of $8,319,514.55.

The ax wielded by the budget board cut most deeply into requests for building appropriations and only a few ships fell from the maintenance requests of the various institutions and departments.

Explaining the budget board's attitude in reference to curtailment of new building projects, Governor W. H. McMaster said:

"While most of the details of the budget were worked out without my active assistance, I did, of course, agree with the principle involved in each case and helped to determine all matters of policy."

TO PROTECT SHIPPERS

St. Paul, Jan. 15.—In order to give preference to claims of actual shippers of grain in the event of a failure of a grain commission from the Minnesota senate committee on agriculture today approved of a provision in the proposed bill regulating grain commission merchants prohibiting the carrying of grain consigned for sale on commission in an open account. The committee also favored a box of $25,000 for each trading point maintained by the commission house. Both provisions were favored by O. P. B. Jacobson, railroad and warehouse commissioner.

Mr. Jacobson also said that an attempt would be made to substitute Minnesota for federal inspection of grain, a change which he declared is favored by Dakota wheat growers.

HAZEN DEFEATS WERNER'S TEAM AT BASKET BALL

Hazen, N. D., Jan. 15.—Hazen defeated Werner at basketball, 24 to 23, in a fast and exciting game here, which was settled in the last minute and a half of play. Adolph Smith throwing the basket for Hazen. This was the second time the two teams met this season and Hazen was especially slated over the victory because her team was outwitted by her opponents.

The first half ended 12 to 10 in favor of Hazen. Smith, forward, and H. Stoelting, guard, starred for Hazen; while Partridge did good work for Werner. Smith made 12 of Hazen's points; Farg and Stoelting, four each. This was the fifth straight victory for Hazen and Hazen was printed for a hard fight with the Stanton town team this week.

SCHOOL NURSE BEGINS DUTIES

FARGO POULTRY SHOW TO HIT NEW RECORDS

Fargo, Jan. 15.—What poultrymen predict will surpass in class and size any previous exhibition will be the twenty-seventh annual show of the North Dakota State Poultry association's show in the Fargo armory, Jan. 17 to 21.

Held in the same building and at the same time as the state grain association convention, the poultry show is expected to be significant of unusual interest this year. Another added feature, regarding the attendance will be the state meeting of the American Barred Rock club, which will be held here on the third day of the show.

Premiums at the exhibit will be paid on both matings, according to the premium list announced by M. N. Hatcher, of Fargo, secretary of the state association.

Secretary Hatcher announced that last year's plan of increasing the premiums to almost double would be followed this year. "It meant an increase of about $300 paid out by the association," said Mr. Hatcher, "but it brought us more birds and a better show so that we were able to practically break even on expenses."

The judging will be governed by the latest revised American Standard of Perfection in classes. Judges will be instructed to disqualify any specimen or pen they may detect as having been tampered or improperly dealt with, Secretary Hatcher said. Judges also will be empowered to withhold a prize when the specimens are found not to be of sufficient merit.

To every exhibitor having eight or more entries the privilege of a sales class will be awarded.

Wednesday evening, Jan. 17, the annual meeting of the state poultry association will be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the North Dakota branch of the American poultry association.

WETTEST TOWN IN AMERICA

Hurley, Wis., Scoffs at Reformers' Efforts

Hurley, Wis., Jan. 15.—"The wettest town in the United States" retains its title despite a "dry cleaning" recently by prohibition officials. Fifty federal agents took two-day loads of "hooch" away and announced that it was "thoroughly dried."

But liquor passes over the bars of 38 saloons nightly. The prohibition agents had not left Ironwood, Mich., across the river, with 52 prisoners and evidence before Hurley began a "wake" to mourn the departed.

Bottles are tipped, cards are dealt for stakes, shots are fired and the night is made hideous with break.

A movie director would not have to erect any sets here for scenes in a "bad man" movie. Rough frame buildings erected for saloons, dance halls and gambling dives still are in use.

Hurley has gone through the transition from lumber camp to mining town. The characters about the bars are garbed in rough clothes and heavy boots.

Robert M. LaFollette, when governor of Wisconsin, sent special agents into Hurley to clean it up after local officials had failed to act. The reform lasted two weeks—until the agents left.

A "straight gambler" dominates the town. And the men of Hurley laugh as they wait for another "cleanup."

BALLOONISTS ARRIVE HOME

New York, Jan. 15.—Lieuts. Mrs. Farrel and Mrs. Hinton had left the city together to greet their husbands before their arrival here. An official welcoming committee from Rockaway headed the crowd of

27 MILLION LEFT IN WILL OF 200 WORDS

Mineola, N. Y., Jan. 15.—In a document of fewer than 200 words, written thirty years ago when he was a poor man, Frank W. Woolworth, originator of the five and ten cent store, willed his estate of close to $30,000,000 in full to his wife. This was disclosed here when James N. Gehrig, Transfer Tax Appraiser, filed an appraisal of the estate in the Surrogate's Court.

Filing of the tersely worded testament served a two-fold purpose, quite aside from the legal technicality of the proceeding. It set at rest reports of a superseding document just before he died and because of the date the will bore—July 31, 1889—when Woolworth was beset with all of the trials of a struggling young business man, it added a touch of romance quite in keeping with the rise of an intendant storekeeper in Watertown, N. Y. to be the ruler of a transcontinental chain of stores and the creator of the Woolworth Building.

Thirteen years before he wrote the will just filed Mr. Woolworth married the daughter of Thomas Creighton—of Picton, Ontario, and records show that the day before his marriage his salary was raised to $10 a week.

SOCIETY

HARVESTER STAFF ENTERTAINED

The employees of the International Harvester company were guests last evening at a delightful dancing party, given by Manager P. A. Fields.

An informal dance program from 9 to 12 was the diversion, with an excellent buffet supper served at midnight. The guests report this the best supper of the season.

The decoration committee turned the hall into a bower of red and white, carried out by streamers draped in the room.

Bushman's orchestra delighted the guests with their fine dance music. Thirty couples making up the party.

COUNTRY CLUB DANCE

The seventh annual mid-winter Country Club dance, held in Patterson hall on Tuesday night, proved to be one of the very successful and enjoyable affairs of the social season. Given, as it was, by the largest recreational group of Bismarck, it was exceptionally well attended, about seventy-five couples from among the Country Club members and their friends attending.

An informal program of dances, beginning at nine o'clock, was followed by a buffet supper, served at midnight in the small dining room of Patterson hall.

Several out of town guests were present, there being several large groups of visitors in the city at the present time—notably the legislators and the county superintendents. The hall was gay in its winter colors of red and green and the guests report a delightful time, due largely to the efforts of the Secretary, Mr. Bolster, with Dr. Crews as chairman of affairs.

PRETTY LUNCHEON

Miss Anne Louise Atkinson was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon today, complimenting Miss Helen Lucas, a bride of the month. Covers were laid for eight of the honor guests' most intimate friends. The table was dainty in a color scheme of green and white, carried out by white flowers, ferns and baskets tied with streamers of white ribbon.

This is the second in the series of little intimate parties in the group of young women who are friends of Miss Lucas. The first being a small luncheon party given by Mrs. Dill B. Register of Wednesday of this week at her apartment in Person Court.

COMING OF CHRIST

EVANGELIST TOPIC

(Contributed)

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first; then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

1 Thes. 4: 16, 17. "From this text Evangelist Copeland preached a strong sermon on 'The Second Coming of Christ.' He said, 'A multitude of people have no concern in the second coming of Christ, but the subject is of such importance that it cannot be ignored by the faithful preacher of Gospel. It is referred to 385 times in the New Testament and many times in the Old Testament. I believe in the second coming of Christ because the Bible teaches it. Do not let anyone tell you that it is a destructive argument against it, but I answer, 'Let God be true and all the destructive critics be liars.'"

He enlarged on his subject by showing how the prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the first coming of Christ had been fulfilled, although the scribes had largely misinterpreted them and had failed to distinguish between the two lines of prophecies, one of which referred to the first, and the other to the second coming of Christ. He said, "Jesus is coming again, and the signs of the times indicate that His coming is near, but no one knows when He will come." He then spoke on the preparation for His coming to which he added an earnest appeal to yield to Christ now. A number of persons responded to the invitation and knelt at the altar in fervent prayer.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1878)

TRULY AMERICAN

Chairman Benson of the shipping board cautions all operators of government vessels "not to be misled into the employment of foreigners" merely because of the lower schedule of pay. He points to the large number of unemployed American seamen, and urges that they be given employment whenever seafaring men are needed.

An American merchant marine, to be truly American, needs more than the American flag flying from the mast. It needs American boats built in American yards by American workmen and they should be manned by American sailors. Then they'll be American.

SHE LIVED TO SEE THE DAY.

The Rev. Phoebe Hanford, pioneer woman minister, was born on the Island of Nantucket in 1829.

She taught school there. Then the feminist movement stirred her, and she studied for the ministry. She was devoted also to the temperance movement. She was the first woman ordained in New England, and became a close associate of Susan B. Anthony and Lucretia Mott.

She spent many years working in the feminist movement, writing and lecturing on subjects which were then not popular or particularly remunerative. She is said to have comparatively little money now at the age of 92.

But this aged woman has better cause for satisfaction than most of those who die in the luxury made possible by accumulation of wealth. It is not given to many to see the ideas to which their lives are devoted reach such fruition as the movement for the political, economic and intellectual freedom of women in the United States.

BABE RUTH'S LESSON.

The fame of Babe Ruth suffered a reverse recently. He essayed to play basket ball, and, according to newspaper dispatches, he played so poorly that those who came to applaud stayed to jeer, so that Babe was taken out of the game. Such is the faithfulness of the fickle goddess popularity.

As the duchess said to Alice in Wonderland, "there is a moral in everything if you only can find it." And the obvious moral in Babe's case is that a man can serve himself best by sticking to the job he knows best how to do.

The reason for much of the failure we observe in human life is that too many are wrongly placed. A good bricklayer often is lost in a poor lawyer, and doubtless, there are poor bricklayers who would make better lawyers.

Round pegs in square holes and square pegs in round holes. Human happiness would be beneficially served if all the misplaced pegs could be so shaken up that the round ones would fall into their proper places and the square ones into theirs.

The best thing that can happen to some men is to be fired so that, perforce, they go forth and find the job best suited to their capabilities. Many men never find themselves. Others, properly placed, are misled by vanity and discontent to reach beyond their depth.

WHY BE DISCOURAGED?

"It isn't always the determined or the vulgar and impolite men who win success in life," said Henry Ward Beecher.

The Prince of Wales, later King Edward, invited an eminent man to dine with him. When coffee was served, what was the consternation of other guests to find that this man drank from his saucer. An open titter of amusement, says Marden in describing the incident, went round the table. The prince lifted his eyes; and, quickly noting the cause of the amusement gravely emptied his cup into his saucer and drank after the manner of the guest. Silent and abashed the other members of the princely household took the rebuke and did the same.

When Catherine of Russia gave receptions to her nobles, she is authentically reported as having printed the following rules of etiquette upon cards: "Gentlemen will not get drunk before the feast is ended. Noblemen are forbidden to strike their wives in company. Ladies of the court must not wash out their mouths in the drinking glasses, or wipe their faces on the damask; or pick their teeth with forks."

Mirabeau was one of the homeliest men in France. It was said he had "the face of a tiger pitted by smallpox," but the charm of his manner was almost irresistible.

Tradition tells us that before Appelles painted his wonderful goddess of Beauty which enchanted all Greece, he traveled for years observing fair women, that he might embody in his matchless Venus a combination of the beauty found in each.

"I never listen to calumnies," said Montesquieu, "because if they are untrue, I run the risk of being deceived, and if they are true, of hating people not worth thinking about."

THE FAME HANDICAP

The self-made man without schooling who attains great distinction is one of our cherished American institutions. He is a national product that makes us justly proud of America and yet he occurs only in the ratio of six to a million of population.

To one of him there are 978 men who have gained distinction with the aid of college education, according to figures compiled by an investigator.

This investigator found that without schooling only 31 out of five millions attained distinction. With elementary schooling only 808 out of 33,000,000 attained distinction.

With high school education 1245 out of two millions attained distinction.

With college educations 5708 out of one million attained distinction.

While such exemplars as Lincoln are inspiring to our national pride, the boy who, like Lincoln, is without any schooling whatever is a long shot of 978 to 1 in the race for fame against a college boy.

And even one with a high school education has about one chance to win fame against nine for a person with a college degree.

If to win fame or distinction were the principal aim of existence, then the figures would be discouraging. But there are vast multitudes with only a common school or high school education who, while never attaining distinction, are comfortable citizens, living righteous lives, paying their debts and bringing up their children to good citizenship. And these accomplishments are about as much as should be expected of any citizen.

The backbone of a nation are not the famous citizens, but the average fellows.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

WHY THE DEATH PENALTY?

Advocacy of the death penalty for murder in the first degree in Minnesota has been greatly stimulated by recent shocking crimes against women, accompanied by murders. The incentive to murder in the case of an attack upon a woman is that the killing of the victim lessens the chance of arrest and conviction, because the witness is removed. Restoration of the death penalty for murder is therefore a deterrent not only of murder but of criminal assault. It therefore comes as a surprise that some of the prominent women of St. Paul are opposed to the extreme penalty for murder. This is a question, however, not to be determined by the personality of those who take sides one way or the other, but upon its merits. Other women are entitled to agree or disagree with those who have thus expressed themselves and doubtless will avail themselves of that right.

Highway robbery and burglary also are made easier to commit with safety, if murder can be added to either crime without any additional penalty except possibly a longer term in the state prison. The terror of death is held over the innocent victim of a holdup or a burglary and makes success almost the invariable rule. Under our law there is no such terror over the criminal, in case he executes his threat. The fear of death will operate in some cases to check a potential murderer, robber or rapist. The death penalty will not deter all such crimes. Nobody ever claimed that it would, but if it saves the life of one person from murder, if it saves one woman or one little girl from outrage, it will be a blessing.

It proves nothing that murders are committed in New York and Illinois, where the death penalty is possible, except that some persons take the chance of the electric chair or the gallows. If either of those states should abolish the death penalty, it would be possible to compare the results, but they have not done so and show no disposition to do so. Each of those states contains one of the world's largest cities, natural magnets of criminals of all degrees and affording the greatest opportunities to escape detection for crime. New York City and Chicago hold high records for crimes of violence, because of their size and their undigested and indigestible population.

Minnesota is one of only eleven states out of forty-eight in which there is no death penalty. In the other thirty-seven states, it is the prevalent opinion that one has forfeited his right to live, if he has committed murder in the first degree. That crime is not merely the killing of a human being, but such a killing when it is malicious, intentional and premeditated or when it results from committing or attempting to commit another grave crime, such as burglary, rape or robbery.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

NIGHTMARE AT MARION

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Oliver Roberts Barton.

"The Bobadil Jinn Makes a Visit." The Bobadil Jinn had ten palaces, one on the highest mountain of the earth, one at the bottom of the deepest sea, one at the coldest north and one at the hottest south, or I should say the hottest middle, for after you get past that on your way to the South Pole, it begins to get cold again. Besides that the Bobadil Jinn had a palace in the driest country of the earth where it hadn't rained since Noah's flood; and one in the wettest country where it rained all the time. And he had other palaces as well, scattered around at various places.

The morning after this wicked wizard had robbed the twins of all their magic (the Green Shoes, the Golden Key, the Map and the Language Charm). He awoke in his most northern palace among the ice fields where he had gone after his adventures.

George McPherson, former business manager of the Courier-News, now head of the Dakota Engraving company, Fargo, is in Bismarck mixing with the legislators.

R. M. McClintock, editor of the Courier-News, was one of the leaguers here yesterday for the state convention and to see the legislature in session again.

Matt Johnson, editor of the Independent, dropped back again to Bismarck Friday. He intends to return to Fargo tomorrow or next day and then return to the Capital City for the week-end again.

Thomas Penderay, former senator and candidate for congress against George M. Young, of Valley City, is in Bismarck for two or three days, watching legislative wheels from the outside this time.

Senator C. A. Ward has taken his son, M. D. Ward, in partnership with him, and the latter is taking care of the farm while the senator and his wife are in Bismarck. Senator Ward's other son, Herbert, is in California, and will not return to North Dakota. He has taken a claim at Durango, Colorado.

State's Attorney Thorson of Dunn county, was in Bismarck yesterday on business matters but he spent much time around the house and the senate.

R. H. Walker, candidate for state treasurer against John Steen and former floor leader for the Nonpartisans in the house, was back yesterday. He was re-elected chairman of the state meeting of the Nonpartisan league.

ELTINGE

"Plattery is like champagne—delightful while taking but sickening in its after effect." Thus does Norma Talmadge, the bewitching little motion picture star, describe that gentle art whose use has been in vogue ever since man could speak and woman would listen. And it is this same theme that makes "Yes or No?" Miss Talmadge's latest photoplay, a First National attraction, instructive as well as entertaining. In it the audience is shown the male flatterer at his deadly work both in the home of wealth and the humble tenement—it shows the male vamp in evening clothes and the pursuer in livery—both deadly and dangerous. It graphically describes how two women in diametrically-opposite stations of life accept the attentions of this despicable type of man. This picture is a subject vitally interesting to all women will be shown at the Eltinge again tonight.

ORPHEUM

Reginald Barker, director of the Goldwyn Picture, "Dangerous Days," an Eminent Authors Production, wrote and produced his first stage play at the age of 16. He has been in the work ever since.

Mr. Barker managed his own stock company, and later was stage director for Henry Miller, Olga Nethersole, Robert Hilliard, Emily Stevens, and Walker Whiteside. He began pictures as an assistant director—working for nothing. That was in 1913. Recently he directed Geraldine Farrar in "Flame of the Desert," and "The Woman and the Puppet." Then came "Dangerous Days," which is from the book by Mary Roberts Rinehart.

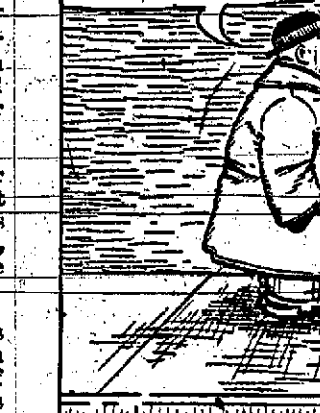

Mr. Barker has a hobby: It is work. He is absorbingly interested in the making of good productions, and when filming a picture, puts every ounce of his magnetic personality into the task. The pictures he makes will be presented by Goldwyn as "Reginald Barker Productions."

STATE BRIEFS

Drawing of a jury for the trial of F. W. Nolan, Great Northern detective charged with murder in the first degree in connection with the shooting of Joe Bagley, an I. W. W., at Hannaford, N. D., last September, began in the Cass county district court today. Judge A. T. Cole will preside.

The program for the 22nd annual Tri-State Grain Growers' convention, to be held at the Fargo auditorium beginning on Tuesday, Jan. 18, and closing on Friday, Jan. 21, is announced today by Gordon W. Randlett and W. C. Palmer, vice president and secretary, respectively, of the convention.

During this convention, and the annual meetings of several farmers' associations to meet in connection with it next week, between 2,000 and 4,000 visiting farmers and businessmen, from all parts of North and South Dakota and Minnesota are expected to be in Fargo.

Charges that P. M. Casey, president of the Equity Co-operative Packing plant at West Fargo, and former Nonpartisan league office-holder, had admitted that the plant "has lost large sums of money and that it is in a serious condition," and that the statement made to stockholders at their annual meeting, Jan. 20, 1920, did not represent the actual condition of the company at that time and that inventories of assets in storage made it appear that the company had greater resources than it actually had, were made in the Jan. 7 issue of the Co-operators Herald, official publication for the Equity Co-operative exchange and several other co-operative associations.

Fire starting in the branch lumber shed of the Omandan Mercantile company destroyed the structure and also the Ford garage adjacent. The loss on the garage is estimated at $3,000, covered by insurance. The Omandan company's loss is placed at $20,000, also fully insured. No adequate equipment for fighting the fire was available. Incendiarism is suspected.

The Northern Trust company of Fargo, today agreed to purchase $107,000 in six per cent bonds to be issued by the city commission to fund outstanding indebtedness, according to announcement at the city auditor's office. The purchase price agreed upon was not announced.

The Missouri Slope Good Roads association, held its second meeting in Max and appointed the following on its legislative committee: Messrs. Freitag of Max, Robinson of Garrison, Dickinson of Ryder, Elckoff of Fulkirk and Fadden of McKenzie county. This committee will go to Bismarck to urge the passage of the good roads bill. The association is particularly interested in developing roads in this section of the state.

Pleading guilty to the charge of "obtaining money under false pretenses," F. W. Hildebrand, North Dakota's "rob" swindler, was yesterday sentenced by Judge M. J. Engle at Valley City, to a year in the state penitentiary. Hildebrand victimized dozens of bankers and business men in Barnes and adjoining counties by a sympathy appeal to get loans on watches that he might reach his sick mother. Loans were made as a result of his stories and in return worthless watches were given by Hildebrand as security.

JESS AND GEORGES MAKE JACK THINK.

What? That Willard is Wiser and Carpenter is Dangerous.

(N. E. A. Staff Special)
Los Angeles, Jan. 15.—Jack Dempsey slipping? The Utah Kid denies it. "Let this straight," says Jack; "I never was as good as I am and as I expect to be when I meet Carpenter. I haven't got good yet. That slipping talk is the bunk!"

Boiling Out
The champion is doing a little boiling out at one of the hot springs near here.

His manager, Jack Kearns, has booked some exhibitions in the northwest, including Portland and Seattle. Then they'll hit the trail east, reaching New York about Feb. 1.

So far Dempsey has settled on no training plans for his bout with Willard on St. Patrick's Day.

"Don't know where my training camp will be pitched," says Jack.

Will Rough It
"I do expect Willard to give me more than he did at Toledo.

Less underestimated me first time up.

"He'll be in better shape in March."

After the Willard fight Dempsey plans a long rest in the mountains. This is to fit him for the hard training to come before the Carpenter match.

The Dempsey-Carpenter bout is set for some time around July 2.

"There's no telling where this scrap is going to land," says Jack.

"I'm taking Carpenter seriously.

"The French boy and myself are the same height—six feet and one inch. Carpenter is heavier in the legs. My weight is in the arms and shoulders. I won't outweigh him very much when we meet.

"I'm not under rating Carpenter like Willard did me. He's smart. He's fast. A smart fellow who has speed and can hit is dangerous. If he hits me right I suppose I'll drop.

"But I figure on beating him to the kays."

MANDAN TAKES GAME HERE BY A CLOSE SCORE

Defeats Bismarck High School 15 to 11 at Basket Ball

MEET AGAIN FEBRUARY 11

Mandan high school defeated Bismarck high school at basketball last night 15 to 11.

Bismarck plays Mandan at Mandan on Feb. 11 and is—

Anyway, Bismarck fans are not looking back today—they are looking ahead to the next meeting of the two teams, which have already shown they are about the class of western North Dakota. Neither had been defeated when they met last night.

The crowd at the game was the largest that ever attended a basketball game in Bismarck. There were 782 paid admissions. A large number stood in the hall. Probably 300 were turned away. Mandan came over with rosters aplenty, more than 300 coming by train and a dozen automobiles bringing many more.

The game was fast and furious. Both teams played strong defensive games, using the five-man defense system. McDonald, Mandan's big guard, and Hanson, shone for the across-the-river team. Bismarck's defense was good, but her attack was not sustained.

First Half 9 to 3.

The first half ended 9 to 3 in favor of Mandan, but in the second half Bismarck staged off what appeared to be the prospect of disastrous defeat by scoring 8 points to Mandan's 6. The showing of the local team in the second half makes supporters optimistic of the outcome of the game to be played at Mandan in February.

Bolse, who has set a standard in foul throwing far above the usual high school average, fell a bit from his previous standard, but still was up to the high school average. In the second half Burke substituted for George for Bismarck and Countryman substituted for Gray for Mandan.

The work of officials Murphy and Morgan gave satisfaction.

Next Friday night Bismarck plays at Dickinson and on the following Friday night Valley City comes to Bismarck.

The state high school tournament, it is announced, will be held at Minot March 10 and 11.

test. Dr. Babcock expresses the conviction that a play of high commercial value would be found tributary to the city.

National Parks Highway.

The National Parks Highway has had the largest automobile traffic of any trans-continental highway in America and while interest in permanent road construction has not reached the concrete stage yet we believe that there is a growing sentiment to build such permanent roads as will meet federal requirements and secure one half the cost from the bureau of public roads.

Conventions.

Bismarck has had its full quota of conventions this year, although during the session of the legislature we have not attempted to secure conventions. Nevertheless five conventions are being held during the week, Jan. 11 to 18.

Publicity.

Special articles have appeared in a number of trade journals, newspapers and magazines on subjects of local interest, with credit given to the Bismarck Commercial club.

Odd Fellows' Home.

The location of the permanent home has not been determined. It may be determined at the session of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. to be held in Bismarck next June. Every effort is being made to bring the institution to Bismarck.

English Lutheran University.

The necessary preliminary steps to be taken between several affiliated Lutheran bodies will have been taken by a general conference June, 1921. The committee in charge of this college, however, is unanimous in their choice of location at Bismarck, and Disarmament or Bankruptcy --- WHICH?

The entire sum needed to save the lives of three and a half millions of starving children in the war devastated areas of Europe is less than the cost of one modern battle-ship, according to Mr. Hoover. An English super-dreadnought of the latest type is said to cost more than $32,000,000. Correspondents put the cost of Japan's new fighting monster, the Mutsu, at $40,000,000. A United States battle-cruiser of the formidable type of the Leifington costs the taxpayer about $23,000,000 to build. The United States naval estimates for 1921, the New York World notes, are nearly $700,000,000, as compared with naval appropriations of about $400,000,000 in Great Britain, and about $150,000,000 in Japan,—and the United States is facing a deficit for the current fiscal year of approximately $2,000,000,000. An official statistician recently showed that ninety-three cents out of every dollar collected by the United States Government goes to pay for past or future wars.

"Disarmament," says Major-General Tasker H. Bliss, who was Military Representative of the United States on the Supreme War Council and Commissioner Plenipotentiary on the American Peace Commission, "is the only means of preserving the world from bankruptcy and civilization from ruin."

The proposal for a general disarmament of the nations of the world is arousing the deepest interest in all countries. The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, January 15th, summarizes public opinion everywhere on this subject.

Trade Tours.

Three trade tours have been taken by the merchants in the city promoting good roads, ship by truck, trade in your home town. Bismarck your jobbing center. The local papers in the territory through which this tour passed spoke in cordial welcome and commendation. The men who took their time to make these tours found a ready response in the towns visited and the city has felt the impulse of these tours in retail trade.

Free Auto Camp.

It is generally conceded that Bismarck has the best equipped free auto camp in the state and one of the best on the National Parks Highway between Chicago and the coast. The camp was established by the club during the summer. The Board of Administration and the board of the penitentiary are to be commended in the fact that they have permitted the use of a portion of the penitentiary grounds for this purpose. Certain important improvements are necessary and no doubt will be made before the opening of the tourist season.

Good Roads.

The club has always been in the forefront of good roads sentiment, and most heartily endorses the North Good Roads Association under the direction of Will Holbein, secretary.

Agricultural.

The club has furnished cash prizes to boys' and girls' clubs in the county, and find that the interest among the young in the county is growing, corn, pigs, and poultry is rapidly increasing. We are proud to advise that ninety per cent of the business houses of Bismarck are members of the club. Ten per cent are riding—free.

The Forum Lunches.

The forum has proved its value in the free and informal discussion of matters of general civic interest, and the attendance has eminently justified its continuance.

Rotary and Town Criers.

During the year an active organization of the Rotary has been effected in Bismarck with F. L. Conklin president and Ray Borgeson secretary. Rotary will contribute generously and effectively to the civic life of the city. The Town Criers' Club has been organized with Phil Meyer president and the secretary of the Commercial club as secretary. The Town Criers will specialize in city and community advertising.

In Conclusion.

We have important projects carried over into 1921 and the club is looking forward to an even more active year than 1920.

100,000 Idle Men

Walk London Streets

London, Jan. 15.—Labor leaders are demanding urgent legislation to solve in some way the problem of unemployment in Great Britain. Warnings have been given of a serious social or industrial upheaval, or some kind of starting "direct action" unless the British government acts promptly.

"If nothing is done within the next six weeks," said J. R. Clynes, member of Parliament, the other day to Dr. Macnamara, the Minister of Labor, in the course of a discussion with labor leaders, "a situation may develop that will threaten the life of the state itself."

There is said to be an ugly temper among many of the 1,000,000 or more unemployed over what they regard as dilatoriness on the part of local and governmental authorities in taking steps to meet the situation adequately. About 100,000 of these idle men are in London.
